

Stephen M. Doniger (SBN 179314)
stephen@donigerlawfirm.com
Scott Alan Burroughs (SBN 235718)
scott@donigerlawfirm.com
Frank Gregory Casella (SBN 301494)
fcasella@donigerlawfirm.com
DONIGER / BURROUGHS
603 Rose Avenue
Venice, California 90291
Telephone: (310) 590-1820

David Rudich, Esq. (SBN 45868)
Law Offices of David Rudich
9255 Sunset Boulevard, Suite 920
Los Angeles, Ca 90069
(310) 550-8020 Telephone
(310) 859-8651 Facsimile
david@davidrudich.com

Attorneys for Plaintiffs
Benny Mardones and Robert Tepper

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
CENTRAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

BENNY MARDONES, an Individual; and
ROBERT TEPPER, an Individual,

Plaintiffs,

v.

CYNDI LAUPER, an Individual;
INDEPENDENT PRESENTERS
NETWORK, a New York business entity, form unknown; CJ E&M CORP., a South
Korean Corporation; JUST FOR
LAUGHS THEATRICALS, LLC, a New York Limited Liability Company;
JUJAMCYN THEATRES, LLC, a New

Case No.:

PLAINTIFFS' COMPLAINT FOR:

(1) COPYRIGHT INFRINGEMENT
(2) BREACH OF FIDUCIARY
DUTIES
(3) BREACH OF CONTRACT

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

1 York Limited Liability Corporation;
2 SPIRIT TWO MUSIC, INC., a New York
3 Corporation, and DOES 1 THROUGH 10,
4 Defendants.

5
6 Plaintiffs, Benny Mardones (“Mardones”) and Robert Tepper (“Tepper”), by 7 and through their undersigned attorneys, hereby prays to this honorable Court for 8 relief based on the following:

9
10 INTRODUCTION

11 Mardones and Tepper are well known musicians who collaborated to write the 12 hit song “Into the Night,” one of only ten records in history to have placed in the top
13 20 of the Billboard Hot 100 chart twice—it reached #11 in 1980 following its release
14 and hit #20 nearly a decade later in 1989. This action is brought because the song
15 “Pick You Up” from the Broadway Musical “Kinky Boots” includes substantially 16 similar lyrics and music which appear to be an unauthorized copy/derivation of the 17 main theme/hook of “Into the Night.”

18
19 PARTIES

20 1. At all times mentioned herein, Mardones was an individual residing in 21 the state of California.

22 2. At all times mentioned herein, Tepper was an individual residing in the 23 state of California.

24 3. At all relevant times, Defendant Cyndi Lauper (“Lauper”) was an 25 individual residing in the state of New York.

26 4. CJ E&M CORP. is a South Korean entertainment and media company
27 operating in the United States through its US-based subsidiary CJ E&M America, 28

1 which has an ownership and/or financial interest in the Kinky Boots production and 2 does business in California.

3 5. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that Defendant
4 Independent Presenters Network (“IPN”) is a consortium of 40 of leading Broadway
5 presenters, theaters and performing arts centers, which bring Broadway productions
6 to more than 110 cities throughout North America and has produced the Kinky Boots
7 musical. IPN is believed to have its principal place of business located at 270
8 Lafayette Street, Suite 200, New York, New York 10012, which has an ownership
9 and/or financial interest in the Kinky Boots Broadway production.

10 6. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that Defendant CJ 11 Group USA, Inc. d/b/a/ CJ E&M (“CJ E&M”) is a corporation organized and existing 12 under the laws of the state of New York, with its principal place of business located 13 6324 Fort Hamilton Parkway, Brooklyn, New York 11219, and which has an 14 ownership and/or financial interest in the Kinky Boots Broadway production.

15 7. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that Defendant Just 16 For Laughs Theatricals, LLC (“Just For Laughs”) is a New York limited liability
17 company with its principal place of business located at 263 West 38th Street, 12
18 Floor, New York, New York 10018. Plaintiff is further informed and believes that 19 Just for Laughs was involved in the production of Kinky Boots for Broadway, 20 London, Australia, and for a North American tour which included Los Angeles.

21 8. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that Defendant
22 Jujamcyn Theatres (“Jujamcyn”) is a corporation organized and existing under the 23 laws of the state of New York, with its principal place of business located at 246
24 West 44th Street New York, New York 10036.

25 9. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that Defendant
26 Spirit Two Music, Inc. (“Spirit”) is a New York Corporation with offices in 27 California at 12711 Ventura Blvd, Suite 110, Studio City, CA 91606.

10. Plaintiffs are unaware of the true names and capacities of the defendants sued herein as DOES 1 through 10, inclusive, and for that reason, sue defendant(s) under such fictitious names. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and based thereon allege that such fictitiously named defendants are responsible in some manner for the occurrences alleged herein, and that Plaintiffs' damages as herein alleged were proximately caused by the conduct of said defendants. Plaintiffs will seek to amend the complaint when the names and capacities of such fictitiously named defendants are ascertained. As alleged herein, the term "Plaintiffs" shall mean all named plaintiffs, and "Defendants" shall mean all named defendants and all fictitiously named defendants.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

11. This Court has personal jurisdiction over each and every one of the Defendants. Venue in this Court is proper under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(c) and 1400(a) because one or more Defendants reside and/or carry on business here, and the wrongful acts of Defendants took place, in whole or in part, in this District.

12. This action arises under the Copyright Act of 1976, Title 17 U.S.C., § 101 et seq.

13. This Court has federal question jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1331 and 1338 (a) and (b).

GENERAL FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

14. Plaintiffs are the authors and copyright owners in the musical composition "Into the Night" ("Subject Composition"), which was composed in this District and first recorded and released in 1980.

15. On June 29, 1981, Plaintiffs registered the Subject Composition with the United States Copyright Office, receiving Registration Number PA 79-692.

16. Since its initial release and publication, "Into the Night" has become a frequently performed major hit. It has achieved the distinction of being one of only

1 ten songs to place in the top 20 of the Billboard Top 100 Chart twice with nearly a 2 decade between those chart appearances. It has been professionally recorded and 3 widely and publicly performed in this District and throughout the United States by 4 means of records, radio, streaming channels, and other media. Recordings of and 5 sheet music for the Subject Composition have also been widely sold throughout the 6 United States, including sales in this District.

7 17. Defendants have had repeated and continuing access to “Into the Night”
8 in various ways including aforementioned public performances, records, streaming
9 services, and sheet music. Without limiting the access and knowledge of other
10 Defendants, Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that, at all relevant 11 times, Lauper and her agents were specifically aware of “Into the Night.” Indeed, 12 Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon alleges that one of the musicians who 13 toured with Mardones and is intimately familiar with “Into the Night” is now a 14 touring musician with Lauper.

15 18. Plaintiffs discovered that since October 2013 Defendants have 16 continuously and repeatedly infringed, and are presently infringing, Plaintiff’s
17 copyright in “Into the Night,” in a song publically performed in the highly successful
18 and award winning musical entitled “Kinky Boots.”

19 19. Defendants copied the principle “Pick You Up” theme of “Into the 20 Night” virtually note for note and have made that copied theme the principle theme of 21 a song purportedly written by Lauper entitled “Raise You Up” (“Infringing Work”), 22 to the point that the principle themes of the two works are strikingly similar. Both the 23 notes and the words surrounding the “raise you up” refrain, sung repeatedly in the 24 Infringing Work, have been copied from the notes and words “pick you up” from 25 “Into the Night.” The similarities of the two works include:

26 20. A “crucial musical climactic moment” the Infringing Work is not only 27 similar but identical to the Subject Composition. See example 1 below:
28

EXAMPLE #1 (Infringing Work: top row, Subject Composition: middle row)Comparative Analysis of two songs*

Dr. Robert Tomaro

quarter note = 126
Raise You Up at : 45*Musical Example 1A- "Raise You Up" Signature Phrase*

1 1 1 2 2 2 2 2 5 3 3 2 1 1 2

Voice

If you hit the dust, let me raise you up If your bubble burst

quarter note = 88

Into the night at : 53

Musical Example 1B- "Into the Night" Signature Phrase

1 1 1 2 2 2 5 3 4 3 2 1 1 1 2

Lead Vocals

If I could fly I'd pick you up and take you in to the night

Rhythm Guitar

21. The “hooks” in the Subject Composition (“pick you up”) and the Infringing Work (“raise you up”) are identical in form, harmonic progression, and rhythm. See example 2.

EXAMPLE #2 (Infringing Work: top row, Subject Composition: middle row)Musical Example 2A- The hook in Raise You Up*

6 2 5 3

Voice

raise you up

Musical Example 2B- The Hook in Into the Night

2 5 3

Ld. Vox.

pick you up

Rhythm

22. The Infringing Work copies the iconic and crucial phrase "...you up" both in word and placement in the work. The Infringing Work sets the lyrics to the exact same progression of tones and rhythm as the Subject Composition. See example 2.

23. The Infringing Work uses similar lyrical phrases and themes as those in the Subject Composition immediately preceding its copying of the "...you up" phrase. See example 3 and 4.

EXAMPLE #3: LYRICS IN SUBJECT COMPOSITION

*If I could fly
I'd pick you up
I'd take you into the night
And show you a love
Like you've never seen*

EXAMPLE #4: LYRICS IN INFRINGING WORK

*If you hit the dust
Let me raise you up
When your bubble busts
Let me raise you up
If your glitter rusts
Let me raise you up*

24. The Infringing Work uses phrases and musical progression identical to those in the Subject Composition immediately following its copying of the "hook." See example 2-4.

EXAMPLE #4 (Infringing Work: top row, Subject Composition: middle row)

Musical Example 3A- The descending phrase following the hook in Raise You Up

12 3 2 1 1 2

Voice

If your bub ble burst

Musical Example 3B- The descending phrase after the hook in Into the Night

3 2 1 1 1 2

L.d. Vox.

take you in to the night

Rhythm

25. Identical harmony, harmonic and rhythm progression, and emphasis of chords in the guitar and keyboard accompaniments to the Subject Composition and the Infringing Work. In both songs the music progresses from a “dotted syncopated rhythm beginning with the chord built on scale step 4” through step 5 before “harmonically resolving” in a rest. See example 5.

EXAMPLE #5 (Infringing Work: top, Subject Composition: bottom)

quarter note = 126
Raise You Up at : 45

Musical Example 4A- Harmony and rhythm part in the chorus of Raise You Up

1 1 1 2 2 2 2 5 3 3 2 1 1 2

Lead Vocals

If you hit the dust, let me raise you up If your bub ble burst

4 chord 5 chord tonic chord 4 chord 5 chord

Ab Bb Bb Eb Ab Bb

Rhythm Guitar

quarter note = 88
Into the night at : 53

Musical Example 4B- Harmony and Rhythm part in the chorus of Into the Night

1 1 1 2 2 2 5 3 4 3 2 1 1 1 2

Lead Vocals

If I could fly I'd pick you up and take you in to the night

4 chord 5 chord tonic chord 4 chord 5 chord

Ab Bb Bb Eb Ab Bb

Rhythm Guitar

1           26. The Infringing Work, and particularly its principle theme copied from 2 “Into the Night,” is the the only song performed twice in Kinky Boots, including as 3 the finale and major “hit” song in the production. A New York Times review of 4 “Kinky Boots”, critical to the success of any Broadway show, singled out the 5 Infringing Work for particular praise as having, by itself, “sent audiences dancing out
6 of the theater.” The unique audience reaction and the extraordinarily favorable 7 review have attracted vast number of additional patrons to the production and 8 resulted in substantial added revenue to Defendants.

9           27. Defendants’ cast recording album of the music from “Kinky Boots”
10 includes the Infringing Work and thus further disseminates and enables Defendants to 11 profit from the principle themes that Defendants copied from “Into the Night.” That 12 album has been widely and successfully sold in this District and elsewhere in the 13 United States and the rest of the world. The Infringing Work has been repeatedly 14 played on the radio, streaming services, and other media in this District and 15 elsewhere in the United States and the rest of the world.

16           28. Since 2013 Kinky Boots has been performed continuously on Broadway, 17 in London, Australia, and all across North America by road companies associated 18 with and authorized by Defendants, including public performances in this District.
19 Such performances of the Infringing Work have occurred continuously since the 20 inception of the musical, and will continue unless enjoined by this Court.

21           29. In May 1999 Mardones entered into an Administration Agreement
22 (“Agreement”) with Spirit whereby Spirit was granted the “sole and exclusive rights
23 of administration” in musical compositions written and/or composed by Mardones,
24 including but not limited to “Into the Night.”

25           30. Under the Agreement, Spirit was further granted the right and ability “to 26 enforce, protect and defend all rights in and to the Compositions and, to the extent 27 applicable, the copyrights thereof.”
28

1           35. Plaintiffs own the copyright in the musical composition “Into the Night,”
2 which was registered with the United States Copyright Office before the occurrence
3 of the infringement claimed herein.

4           36. Defendants’ unauthorized reproduction, distribution, public performance,
5 display, and creation of a derivative work of “Into the Night” infringes Plaintiffs’
6 exclusive rights in violation of the Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. § 101 et seq.

7           37. Defendants did not seek or receive permission to copy, take, sample, or 8 interpolate any portion of “Into the Night” when creating “Raise You Up.” Yet, 9 Defendants exploited a substantial and material portion of “Into the Night” in 10 composing “Raise You Up.”

11           38. Defendants’ conduct has at all times been, and continues to be, knowing, 12 willful, and with complete disregard to Plaintiffs’ rights.

13           39. As a proximate cause of Defendants’ wrongful conduct, Plaintiffs have 14 been irreparably harmed.

15           40. The infringing “Raise You Up” song copies quantitatively and 16 qualitatively distinct, important, and recognizable portions of “Into the Night,” as 17 discussed herein.

18           41. From the date of creation of “Raise You Up,” Defendants, and each, have 19 infringed Plaintiffs’ copyright interest in “Into the Night” by, without limitation: (a) 20 authorizing the live performance, reproduction, distribution and sale of the records
21 and digital downloads through the execution of licenses, and/or actually selling, 22 manufacturing, and/or distributing physical or digital or electronic copies of “Raise 23 You Up” through various physical and online sources; (b) performing “Raise You 24 Up” at live productions and other performances of “Kinky Boots,” (c) participating in 25 and furthering the aforementioned infringing acts, and/or sharing in the proceeds 26 therefrom, all through substantial use of “Into the Night” in and as part of the 27 infringing work “Raise You Up,” packaged in a variety of configurations and digital 28

1 downloads, mixes and versions, and performed in a variety of ways including, but not
2 limited to, audio and video.

3 42. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that Defendants,
4 and each of them, had access to the Subject Composition, including, without 5 limitation, through (a) listening to the recording via Plaintiffs' public performances or 6 recordings, (b) streaming the Subject Composition online, (c) listening to the Subject
7 Composition through a third party, (d) viewing the sheet music of the Subject
8 Composition. Plaintiffs further allege that the identical nature of the copying 9 establishes access.

10 43. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that Defendants,
11 and each of them, performed and distributed songs and recordings thereof that were 12 unauthorized copies of the Subject Composition, and exploited said composition 13 online, in advertising, and in productions.

14 44. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that Defendants,
15 and each of them, infringed Plaintiffs' copyrights by creating infringing derivative
16 works from the Subject Works and by performing and publishing the infringing work
17 to the public, including without limitation, through its live performances, YouTube
18 channels, or elsewhere.

19 45. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that Defendants,
20 and each of them, infringed Plaintiffs' rights by copying the Subject Composition
21 without Plaintiffs' authorization or consent.

22 46. Due to Defendants', and each of their, acts of infringement, Plaintiffs 23 have suffered general and special damages in an amount to be established at trial.

24 47. Due to Defendants' acts of copyright infringement as alleged herein, 25 Defendants, and each of them, have obtained direct and indirect profits they would 26 not otherwise have realized but for their infringement of Plaintiffs' rights in the 27 Subject Composition. As such, Plaintiffs are entitled to disgorgement of Defendants' 28

1 profits directly and indirectly attributable to Defendants' infringement of Plaintiffs'
2 rights in the Subject Composition in an amount to be established at trial.

3 48. Plaintiffs are entitled to elect actual damages, including the substantial
4 profits of Defendants, or in the alternative statutory damages pursuant to 17 U.S.C. §
5 504(c), in an amount to be proven at trial.

6 49. Plaintiffs are entitled to their costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees,
7 pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 505.

8 50. Defendants' conduct is causing and, unless enjoined by this Court, will 9 continue to cause Plaintiffs irreparable injury that cannot be fully compensated or 10 measured in monetary terms. Pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 502, Plaintiffs are entitled to a 11 permanent injunction prohibiting the reproduction, distribution, sale, public
12 performance or other use or exploitation of "Into the Night," including the infringing
13 song "Raise You Up."

14 SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF

15 (For Breach of Fiduciary Duties – Against Spirit)

16 51. Plaintiffs repeat, re-allege, and incorporate herein by reference as though
17 fully set forth, the allegations contained in the preceding paragraphs of this 18 Complaint.

19 52. At all relevant times, Spirit created, accepted, and was obligated to act in 20 a fiduciary relationship with and for the benefit of Plaintiffs. This fiduciary 21 relationship was based on trust and confidence, as well as the express contractual 22 obligations alleged herein, and it required Spirit to act in the best interests of 23 Plaintiffs at all times.

24 53. Also by virtue of this special relationship that existed between Spirit and 25 Plaintiffs, Plaintiffs had confidence in the fidelity and integrity of Spirit and entrusted 26 Spirit with information and portions of their financial and legal affairs, thereby 27 creating a confidential relationship which existed at all times relevant to this action, 28

1 such that Spirit owed to Plaintiffs a fiduciary duty to put the interests of Plaintiff
2 before their own.

3 54. Upon learning of the infringement claims at issue in this case, Plaintiffs 4 reached out to Spirit as the administrator of “Into the Night” to advise it of the 5 plagiarism of a substantial portion of “Into the Night” and to request that Spirit honor
6 its contractual and fiduciary obligations with respect to that claim. Specifically,
7 Mardones called and spoke to Spirit founder and President Mark Fried to make him
8 aware of the claims against Lauper, et. al.

9 55. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereon allege, that Spirit also 10 represents Lauper, although at no point did Spirit disclose this conflict to Plaintiffs.

11 56. In June of 2015, after independently learning of Spirit’s relationship with 12 Defendants and conflict of interests, Plaintiffs’ counsel documenter their claims in 13 writing to Spirit with a supporting musicologist report and demanded that Spirit
14 honor its contractual and fiduciary obligations to Plaintiffs with respect to the claims 15 asserted herein.

16 57. Spirit has failed and refused to take action on the infringement claim 17 asserted herein, and has instead made it abundantly clear that its priorities and 18 allegiances lie with Lauper and the other defendants. Spirit’s willful breach and 19 failure to act underscores a simple fact: Spirit has put its pecuniary interest in 20 continuing to reap the financial benefits from the exploitation of both “into the 21 Night” and “Raise You Up” above its obligations to protect Plaintiffs’ copyrights.
22 Plaintiff believes that Spirit’s decision has been motivated by the fact that Mardones 23 suffers from Parkinson’s Disease and has resultantly had to significantly reduce his 24 touring (and the attendant promotion of “Into the Night”) while Lauper’s Kinky 25 Boots with its main anthem “Lift You Up” is an ongoing commercial success that has 26 won best musical awards including the Tony, the Grammy, and London’s Oliver 27 Award.

1           58. Moreover, Spirit has made an intentional decision to align itself with 2 Lauper, affirmatively stating to Mardones that “Raise You Up” does not infringe on 3 “Into the Night.” At a minimum Spirit could have remained neutral, but it willfully 4 chose not to do so despite having voluntarily accepted the trust and confidence of 5 Plaintiffs, and the express fiduciary duties to which they agreed, Spirit breached its 6 fiduciary duties by inter alia (1) failing to identify and raise claims based on the 7 copyright for “Into the Night” which it was obligated to protect, (2) advising Plaintiff
8 that the claim was very close but then discouraging Plaintiffs from pursuing the case,
9 (3) refusing to bring the claims asserted herein, even when advised that a renowned 10 musicologist believed the claim to be viable, (4) failing to advise Plaintiffs of its 11 conflict of interest in this matter given Spirit’s representation of Lauper, (5) failing to 12 remain neutral when faced with its conflict interest, instead giving strong biased
13 support to Lauper and the other Defendants to the detriment of Plaintiff, and (6)
14 refusing to cooperate in Plaintiff’s efforts to avoid further dispute and preempt
15 unnecessary and costly litigation concerning standing by confirming Plaintiffs’ right 16 to bring this action with a simple assignment of such right.

17           59. As a direct and proximate result of the aforementioned acts, Plaintiff has 18 suffered and sustained damages in an amount not yet ascertained, but to be proven at 19 trial. To the extent that the Agreement purports to contain an exculpatory clause,
20 which purports to release Spirit from this unlawful conduct, Plaintiffs allege that such 21 a clause is unenforceable pursuant to Civil Code Sec. 1668 and other applicable laws.

22           60. Spirit is guilty of malice, fraud or oppression, such that Plaintiffs should 23 recover, in addition to actual damages, punitive damages to make an example of and 24 punish and deter similar conduct.

25                           THIRD CLAIM FOR RELIEF

26                           (For Breach of Contract – Against Spirit)

1           61. Plaintiffs repeat, re-allege, and incorporate herein by reference as though
2 fully set forth, the allegations contained in the preceding paragraphs of this
3 Complaint.

4           62. Spirit expressly agreed with Plaintiffs that it would, among other things,
5 act as the attorney-in-fact and initiate litigation against infringers of any of the 6 compositions subject to the Agreement, including “Into the Night.” At the time the 7 parties entered into the Agreement they were legally capable of contracting—there 8 was mutual consent, a lawful objective and sufficient consideration.

9           63. Plaintiffs have performed all obligations required by the Agreement, and 10 Spirit has accepted and benefitted from Plaintiffs’ performance under the Agreement.

11           64. Spirit has materially breached the terms of the Agreement by, among 12 other things, refusing and failing to bring legal action against Lauper and the other 13 Defendants named herein, and by acting to the detriment of the Plaintiffs. The breach 14 is material.

15           65. As a direct and proximate result of the aforementioned acts, Plaintiff has 16 suffered and sustained damages in an amount not yet ascertained, but to be proven at
17 trial. To the extent that the Agreement purports to contain an exculpatory clause,
18 which purports to release Spirit from this unlawful conduct, Plaintiffs allege that such 19 a clause is unenforceable pursuant to Civil Code Sec. 1668 and other applicable laws.

20           66. Moreover, Plaintiff alleges that the Administration Agreement was 21 obtained by Spirit through mistake and fraud, as alleged herein, since Plaintiffs did 22 not understand that Spirit would not protect its interests, including bringing legal 23 action if such action would conflict with other client interests that Spirit deemed to be 24 more important or currently valuable than Spirit’s legal and contractual obligations to 25 Plaintiffs.

26           67. Spirit affirmatively and fraudulently concealed from Plaintiffs that it
27 would not carry out its contractual obligations to Plaintiffs in the event of a conflict 28

1 of interests with other Spirit writers, notwithstanding the adverse effect and financial
2 harm Plaintiffs. Spirit had a duty to so advise Plaintiffs in light of the fiduciary duties
3 established but failed to so advise Plaintiffs.

4 68. Upon information and belief Spirit represents a substantial portion of the 5 music publishing market throughout the world. Accordingly, there is a strong 6 likelihood that conflicts of interest, such as the one at issue in the present case, will 7 arise again between Spirit and Plaintiffs. Based on blatant and egregious breach of 8 Spirit's fiduciary duty and covenant of good faith and fair dealing, Spirit has proven 9 that it cannot be trusted to remain neutral and impartial, and that it is unworthy of the 10 level of trust and unable to meet the level of professional conduct which is required
11 of a copyright administrator charged with protecting Plaintiffs' important interests in 12 their copyrighted works.

13 69. By Spirit materially breaching the terms of the Agreement, as set forth 14 above, Spirit has rendered an ongoing relationship unworkable. Plaintiffs therefore 15 serve notice through this pleading of their demand for rescissionary damages on the 16 grounds of fraudulent misrepresentations, deceit, mistake, material breach, and 17 breach of fiduciary duties by Spirit as alleged herein.

18 70. Plaintiffs hereby demand restitution from Spirit in an amount that will 19 restore them to a position they would have been in had Spirit not engaged in the 20 willful, intentional, and purposeful conduct alleged herein.

21 71. Plaintiffs also seek rescission of the Agreement, and disgorgement of 22 profits, based on Spirit's breaches of various contractual and fiduciary duties owed to 23 them. Plaintiffs should not be compelled to remain in this contractual relationship, the 24 term of which continues for many years, in light of the fact that Spirit has actively 25 and affirmatively worked against the rights and interests of Plaintiffs, despite its legal 26 and contractual duties to protect those very rights and interests. Spirit has shown that 27 it will not and cannot be trusted to perform its contractual obligations and duty to 28

1 Plaintiffs in accordance with and as intended by the Agreement, and has no intention
2 of doing so, particularly when confronted with conflicts of interest that are perceived
3 to adversely affect its more significant revenue streams and other Spirit interests.

4
5 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

6 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully prays for judgment against all
7 Defendants, and each of them individually, as follows:

- 8 1. A declaration that Defendants have infringed Plaintiffs' copyrighted
9 musical work in violation of the Copyright Act;
- 10 2. A declaration that Defendants are directly, vicariously and/or contributorily 11 liable for copyright infringement, as applicable;
- 12 3. A permanent injunction requiring Defendants and their agents, servants, 13 employees, officers, attorneys, successors, licensees, partners, and assigns, 14 and all persons acting in concert or participation with each or any one of 15 them, to cease directly and indirectly infringing, and causing, enabling, 16 facilitating, encouraging, promoting, inducing, and/or participating in the 17 infringement of any of Plaintiffs' rights protected by the Copyright Act;
- 18 4. For either statutory damages or the actual damages sustained by Plaintiffs;
- 19 5. For special and compensatory damages in an amount according to proof in 20 excess of the jurisdictional limit of this court;
- 21 6. For an accounting;
- 22 7. For punitive damages;
- 23 8. For injunctive relief from any and all present and/or future exploitation;
- 24 9. For restitutionary damages;
- 25 10. For rescission of the Agreement with Spirit;
- 26 11. For prejudgment interest;
- 27 12. For attorney's fees, where applicable, interest, and costs of suit; and 28

1 13. For such other and further relief as to this Court seems just and proper.

2 Plaintiffs demand a jury trial on all issues so triable pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P.
3 38 and the 7th Amendment to the United States Constitution.

4 Respectfully submitted,

5 Dated: August 30, 2017

By: /s/ Stephen M. Doniger
Stephen M. Doniger, Esq.
DONIGER / BURROUGHS
Attorneys for Plaintiffs